CAPE TO CAPE MISSION TEAM UPDATE: The team is back. Thanks to all of you who supported the work both financially and through your prayers and encouragement. We were able to meet several of our World Bible School students in person, some of whom we found were already members of the Lord's body, and do personal studies with them. In two of our studies, the WBS student invited others to join them, so we were able to present the gospel to them also. 5 of our contacts decided to be baptized. The baptisms were performed in the ocean (cold at this time of year), in a local church, and in the swimming pool (also cold) at the place we were staying. We expect even more students to make that final commitment to Christ in the near future. We feel it was a very profitable trip for the Lord. Thanks again to this congregation for making it happen.

PRAYER MEETING: Please join us this evening as 5 p.m. as we entreat the Father in prayer.

THANK YOU: Nolan Potter and Wyatt Jones sent thanks for the graduation cards and gifts. Joan England sent a thanks for all the calls, prayers, and care during her recovery. Elaine Catlow also expresses her appreciation for our support, prayers and love. You can see these posted on the bulletin board.
