SERVICE SCHEDULE: There will be no group services until further notice due to the COVID-19 pandemic. You can meet with the brothers and sisters via Facebook on Sundays and Wednesdays. If you don't have Facebook, check out the many live-streaming lessons you can find online. If you'd like communion supplies, please contact Bill Meyer.

CONTRIBUTIONS: Even though we are not meeting physically, the costs for the church continue. We still pay for building utilities and any maintenance that may come up and for supplies and for the minister's salary. Please continue to "lay by in store". Mail your weekly contributions to the church building or to Bill.

SYMPATHY: Our sympathy goes to the family of Lynn Glenn (Karen Tanner's father) who passed away Thursday, April 2. The funeral was held Friday, April 10th. Please continue to pray for this family, especially Lynn's wife, Nancy, as they adjust to being without Lynn's presence.

Our sympathy also goes to Jeremy Hart, a former member, whose father, Tom, died from the corona virus. Thankfully, his mother, who was exposed to the virus, was tested and found to be without the virus. Please pray for the Hart family.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

GOOD NEWS: Liam Clark received a good report on his most recent scan. As you may recall, Liam is only about 3 years old and was diagnosed with cancer. Shannon Sessoms' mother is also doing well, praise the Lord. Dr. Keith Graham, for whom many of you have been praying, is doing better. The doctors are trying to wean him off of the sedatives so they can remove the ventilator but Keith struggles without the sedatives. Please continue to pray for him. Pray for all the victims of the coronavirus and for it to decline; pray for all peoples whose jobs are affected; pray for our health care workers; pray for our nation and its leaders; pray for all of us!
