IN GOOD NEWS: Johnna Potter’s dad is recovering better/faster than anticipated. He is off oxygen now and getting around. He still has a few months before he's in the clear but thank you for all the prayers!

Let’s continue to keep him in our prayers.

Brad Readnour is also continuing to improve. Praise the Lord

In other good news, we have no one who has the corona virus, as far as we know. Continue to pray for all our brothers and sisters, especially for those in health care like Shannon Sessoms.

KEEP FIT: If you want to do some home exercise, please contact Jan Cannon. She is recording yoga, low impact cardio, and strength training workouts on Facebook Live. These workouts are designed for everyone (young, old, and everything between) to enjoy. Her Facebook name is Jay Elle.

LOOK FOR NEW STYLES?: Dave Hardesty says, “... if the barbershops don't reopen soon, this ole guy will be sporting a pony tail the next time we see each other! 😊 Love and miss everyone!”

Dave, I think we’d like to see that new style on you. Be sure to take a picture.

SERVICE SCHEDULE: There will be no group services until further notice due to the COVID-19 pandemic. You can meet with the brothers and sisters via the church’s Facebook page on Sundays at 11 (note the new time) and Wednesdays at 7. If you don’t see the “live” show, you can watch later either on Facebook or on Youtube. If you don’t have Facebook, check out the many live-streaming lessons you can find online. For those who wish to go to the building for communion, be there between 10 and 10:30. Only one family in the building at a time, please.

Everyone is encouraged to invite their friends, family, and neighbors via email, phone calls, texts, personal invites, or snail mail to come be a part of our ONLINE Friends and Neighbors Days (find info on the church Facebook page) -for the next two weeks.
