ON THE LIGHT SIDE

An old Italian lived alone in New Jersey. He wanted to plant his annual tomato garden, but it was very difficult work, as the ground was hard. His only son, Vincent, who used to help him, was in prison. The old man wrote a letter to his son and described his predicament. Dear Vincent, I am feeling pretty sad because it looks like I won't be able to plant my tomato garden this year. I'm just getting too old to be digging up a garden plot. I know if you were here my troubles would be over. I know you would be happy to dig the plot for me, like in the old days. Love, Papa

A few days later he received a letter from his son. Dear Papa, Don't dig up that garden. That's where the bodies are buried. Love, Vinnie

At 4 a.m. the next morning, FBI agents and local police arrived and dug up the entire area without finding any bodies. They apologized to the old man and left.

That same day the old man received another letter from his son. Dear Papa, Go ahead and plant the tomatoes now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances. Love, Vinnie

In good news, Wayne Schultz, Sara Jones' father, is doing very well. Praise God for his continued recovery.

Sara's grandmother, Carrie Schultz, has been diagnosed with COVID but so far only has a slight cough under exertion. She is in a nursing home. Others at that nursing home have also contracted the virus. Please pray for her and all those who are isolated.

Betty Tanner has been moved to the Lutheran Home, room 622, for rehab following her hip surgery. She can be reached at 573-335-0518.
