

Adapted from an article on the cost of sin.

Sin is expensive, unbelievably expensive. But the price is not paid by check or credit card. The price is pain: emotional, mental, and spiritual pain. God did not create a check list of “Do this” and “Don’t do that” to watch us fail. He gave us guidelines for a happy life. His anger over jealousy, stealing, pride, cheating, lying, hate, and the rest is because He knows these destroy relationships and ruin our lives. Everything the Bible calls a sin is something God is trying to protect us from. His desire is for us to have peace here now and an eternity with Him in heaven. Instead of choosing a sinful lifestyle, we can live the kind of life God wants for us.

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.” Col. 3: 12-14
