LADIES' LUNCHEON TO RESUME

Ladies, come join in a time of fellowship on Tuesdays at 11 a.m. in various restaurants. This Tuesday, April 6, we will meet at Logan's Steakhouse. All ladies are welcome.

OVERSIGHT

The Volkerdings had an anniversary on April 2nd and Tracy Vaughan became a year older on April 3rd. These events were left out of last week's bulletin. My apologies to Richard and Jane and Tracy.

SERVICE SCHEDULE

Men, once again you'll have assignments for the various portions of our worship service. If you cannot fulfill your responsibilities or if you'd like to volunteer in other areas of the service, please let Dave Hardesty know.

CHILDREN'S HOME PICKUP

The truck from the Children's Home will be here on next Monday, April 12, to load up the supplies donated. Please bring your donations in by Sunday, April 11. Thank you.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

There are several members in the congregation who have surgeries scheduled. Betty Carroll is scheduled for knee replacement tomorrow, April 5, and Chris Hartline is scheduled for the same on Wednesday, April 7. Cathy Brown has upcoming carpal tunnel surgery and then, after a recovery period, knee surgery. Please keep all in your prayers.

Peyton Wolters, 4-year-old great-niece of Karen Tanner, was mauled by a dog. Both her legs and her left arm are fractured. A major concern is nerve damage in the hand and infections. Please keep her in your prayers.

The Tanners will be gone for a couple of weeks, doing necessary repairs and clean-up in preparation for selling the family home in St. Louis. They would appreciate your prayers.
