WELCOME BACK, STUDENTS: We would like to invite you to accept one of our “goodie bags” as you leave this morning through the fellowship room. We pray that you’ll find the items useful – maybe even yummy – as you begin a new year at SEMO.

HOST FAMILIES NEEDED: If you are willing to open your home for the college students on a Thursday evening, please let Mike Readnour know. Isaac Readnour will be coordinating these Thursday night devotionals and they would appreciate meeting in our homes.

OUR SYMPATHY: We again want to extend our sympathy to the family of Jeanie Barker. Jeanie’s great-niece, Abby Foster, who lives near Blytheville, lost her 33-year-old husband in an accident last week. The family has 2 daughters at home. Abby is the granddaughter of Donna Barnes who just passed away, so this is a very, very difficult time for them. Please pray for the Foster, Barnes & Barker families.

THANK YOU: “Dear Church Family – Your love, prayers, cards, messages, calls & any other expressions of kindness & concern are so very appreciated during the loss of my sister, Donna Barnes & Wayne’s surgery. We love you all! Wayne & Jeanie Barker.

LADIES’ LUNCHEON: Ladies, this week’s Tuesday luncheon will be at 11 a.m. at Muy Bueno on Independence.

CHILDREN’S HOMES COIN CANS: The annual coin can fund drive will soon begin a new year. Please bring your current coin cans to the church building and get them to Mike or June Readnour by September 12th. You can pick up your new coin cans from the fellowship room.

26TH ANNUAL SEMO LECTURESHIP

ARNOLD CHURCH OF CHRIST LADIES’ DAY: The Arnold Church of Christ is hosting their annual ladies’ day on Saturday, September 11 with speaker, Vicky Yokum, from 9-2 with lunch being served in the fellowship hall. Please sign up on the sheet provided in the back if you want to go. They would like a head count by September 4th.

PTP (Polishing the Pulpit) Spark will take the place of the area wide lectureship this year.
