LADIES' LUNCHEON: Ladies, this week's Tuesday luncheon will be at 11 a.m. at Applebee's.

GO, from the Maud, Texax, Church of Christ bulletin

For some reason or another Christians have changed the commission of spreading the Good News of Jesus from "go" to "come". We build nice, fancy church buildings and meeting halls then say to the world, "Come and hear about Jesus!" It's a noteworthy invitation no doubt but how does it compare to the biblical instruction?

- "Go" tell what great things the Lord has done – Mark 5:19
- "Go" and tell these thing to the brethren – Acts 12:17
- "Go", I sent you out as lambs among wolves – Luke 10:3
- "Go" and bring forth fruit – John 15:16
- "Go" and do as the Good Samaritan – Luke 10:37
- "Go" in to all the world and preach the gospel – Mark 16:15
- "Go" and make disciples and baptize them – Matthew 28:19

It's easy to see that we are to "go" and take the message to the people rather than expecting them to come to us. May we all encourage each other to spread the good news.

DEVELOPING LAUGH LINES: You're a Preacher If . . .

The most popular feature in a recent denominational clergy magazine is titled "you Might Be a Preacher If..." Here are a few unsolicited examples of ways readers completed that sentence:

- "You've been told to get a real job."
- "You've been tempted to name your fishing boat 'Visitation'."
- "You couldn't sell used cars."
- You never said, 'I'm NEVER going to be a preacher!'"
- "You win a door prize at the church banquet, and people say it was rigged."
- "Your belly is ever referred to as 'the chicken coop.'"
- "You kids nickname you 'Our father who art at a meeting.'"
