SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

LADIES' BREAKFAST: Ladies, this week we will meet for breakfast at 8:30 at the Sand's Pancake House on Morgan Oak.

New Worship Format for Sunday Evenings Starting October 3

During this time while the congregation searches for a new evangelist, the elders thought this an opportune time to energize our Sunday night worship services by instituting what is described in I Corinthians 14:26.

So beginning tonight, we ask that each of the baptized men in the congregation to please come to worship with either a scripture to read, a song to lead, a specific prayer to share, or a short devotional thought to present. Women of the congregation can support this by encouraging the men with suggestions of what to share and by attending. One of the elders will start the worship time, then go systematically around the auditorium to each man. If you don't feel comfortable, the turn will pass to the next man. This is a chance to share your faith before a loving and friendly audience, a chance to serve the congregation and practice leadership skills, and a chance to be an active part of our worship experience. If you have questions, don't hesitate to talk to one of the elders.

THANK YOU: We have received thank you cards from the college students for the gift bags presented to them at the beginning of the semester and from Nancy and Pam White for the support given during their COVID episodes. They are posted on the bulletin board if you'd like to read them.

PREACHING SCHEDULE

The following speakers will be with us on Sunday Mornings: Austin Holiman this morning; Scott Readnour on Oct. 10; Barney Hartline on Oct. 17; Micah Brinkley on Oct. 24; and Chris White on Oct. 31. Be sure to encourage our members who are stepping up to help during this time of transition.
