SEMO FISH FRY

Once again, the Dexter congregation is hosting the Children’s Homes, Inc. Fish Fry. It’s coming up tomorrow, June 6, at 6 p.m. in their Fellowship Building. They have good food and good fellowship with other members of the Lord’s church. If you’ve never been, you might try to go this year.

BENEVOLENCE POLICY

It is the elders’ policy to NOT give cash to anyone that comes to the building asking for assistance. After verifying that their request is legitimate, we will put gas in their vehicle, pay a medical bill directly to the medical provider or buy them food. We will NOT pay rent, utility/water bills or phone/internet bills. The elders encourage members to not give cash to people they do not know and whose story they cannot verify.

NEW WEDNESDAY CLASS

The adult Wednesday evening class has completed the book of Hebrews. A huge “Thanks” to Chris White for the excellent job he did. We will now begin a study of Peter. Study guides are available on the table at the back of the auditorium. Dave Hardesty will be leading this class.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

- Let’s continue to seek God’s guidance in sending us a minister, and for the search committee and for our elders.
- Wayne & Jeanie’s daughter-in-law’s mother, Sandra, had a stroke. Please pray for her.
- Remember the families of those children and teachers who were killed in the Texas school shooting.
- Let’s rejoice that Chris Hartline is doing much better after this most recent knee surgery. Praise the Lord!
- Pat Smart is doing well in her rehab program at Chateau Girardeau. She is in room 307 and enjoys calls and visits.
- David Mattingly has been diagnosed with kidney problems and will undergo tests to see if he needs dialysis. Please keep him in your prayers.
