SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

Cathy Brown and Mark McAllister both had a good report from their last MRIs. Praise the Lord!

Please pray for Klynt Bryce, one of our former college students. He has the following request:

Today (Thursday 12/05) a team of liver specialists are meeting to decide what my next treatment option is. One option is to remove all the tumors and reverse my colostomy via surgery. This is our preferred option. Another option is to install an internal chemo pump that is hooked up directly to my liver that would be able to deliver a high powered level of chemo with a possibility of a liver transplant down the road. Please say a prayer that they choose the best option.

Deidra Sutton, the cousin of Cheryl McAllister and Jan Cannon has cancer so please pray for her.

Ashley Wibbenmeyer, a friend of Kathy Golightly, has a rare form of cancer (Epithelioid hemangioendothelioma (EHE). She has 4 young children. There is a fundraiser (purchase raffle tickets) to help with medical costs at Ochs Home Furnishing in Perryville with the drawing to be on December 20th. If you’re interested please talk with Kathy Golightly or call Ochs Home Furnishing at \(573\) 605-1116 for more information

Jane Stephens and Jim Ferretti are still under the weather. Please pray for them.

DEVELOPING LAUGH LINES

Hank: “God, I was wondering, how long is a million years to you?”

God: “Son, a million years is like a second to me.”

Hank: “God, how much is a million dollars to you?”

God: “Son, a million dollars to me is like one penny to you.”

Hank: “God, can I have one of your pennies?”

God: “Just a second, son.”
